A GREAT SUIT DUE TO AN EXPLOSION

Messrs. Breil & Fitzpatrick yesterday got a writ of habeas corpus frem Judge Ewing at the instance of Rev. P. Gregory, commanding the management of the St. Franciscus Hospital to produce in court the body of Margaret Resendorf, who is also known as Daisy Hutchinson, in order to test the question of her sanity. It is alleged want to control her property. It is also alleged that Mrs. William Blum and Mrs. Purdin, of Buffalo, and others unknown to the petitioner, had her committed. She was committed by Alderman McMasters on the certificate of Dr. Mercur and some other physician, and C. F. McKenna asked Common Pleas Court No. 2 to appoint a commissioner to inquire into her mental condition.

Mr. Fitzpatrick states that two men and two women brought Daisy to the hospital, confined. Daisy objected strenuously to beproperty. She asserted with so much apparent sense of what she was saying that she was a wictim that she impressed the Mother Superior and also Father Morritz, consulting priest, with her statement, and they began to think she might be telling the truth. She stated that she had abandoned her wayward life in she had abandoned her wayward life in disgust, stimulated somewhat by the extortion practiced on her by some of the police force and by others, some demanding at frequent intervals $100, others $20, others $10 and others $3, to which extortion she was compelled to submit to save prosecution, and as she had sufficient means to support her she thought she would retire and get rid of the annoyance. Mr. Fitzpatrick also stated that he understood that at 5 o'clock Sunday morning two men called in a carriage at the hospital and wanted to take Daisy away, the men representing themselves to be detectives. They stated that they were commissioned to take her to an insane asylum in Philadelphia. Subsequently, two other men called, and wanted to take her away to Flatbush, N. Y.; but the sisters refused to allow either delegation to have her.

Constable Heiner, of Aiderman McMaster's office, says that he called at the hospital in a carriage for Daisy yesterday morning, but the sisters would not give her up. He says an information had been made against her for disorderly conduct.

Daisy is said to be worth $30,000 to $40,000.

Daisy is said to be worth $30,000 to $40,000, Daisy is said to be worth $30,000 to $40,000, and, though shrewd, quite illiterate and unsophisticated. Court appointed John Shoomaker, Esq., to take testimony in her case.

Dr. Marphy explained last evening that he certainly believed, from observations made at his office, when 'Squire Porter brought Daisy there the other day, that she was insane, and, although he had prescribed for her, he yet thought that medicine would do her but little good, and that the arrangements made by her sisters to take her to a seaside cottage in the East for treatment, were wise and proper.

PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE,1

BUFFALO, March 25 .- A crowd of New York chorus girls came here nearly a month ago from New York, to play burlesque at the Adelphi Theater. Frank Wright hired them on a telegram from Manager Gerlach, who was trying to imitate Harris and She Talks of Official Extertion and Other Jacobs, with a chain of theaters. The first week the girls received only portions of their salaries, and since then, until they struck to-day they have received less than $15 spiece. The girls were plucky and played in the house under adverse circumstances. Last Friday night there was no coal to heat the dressing rooms, but all ex-cept one girl dressed in tights and played as if there was no danger of pneumonia or rheumatism. Manager Gerlach transferred his interest to Singe Manager Nelse Curry, who tried to get the actresses to work for him, but they refused.

Leon May, one of the troupe, has given up test the question of her sanity. It is alleged that Daisy was put into the insane ward of the hospital by people who want to control her property. It is also alclothing she wears and one pair of tights. The members of the troupe are skirmishing and telegraphing for money to get home.

A Boon for Suffering Woman.

If there are times in life that try men's souls, there are also times that try women's souls. As woman's organization in general is more delicate than man's, so she has special functions of a far more delicate character, which render her much more liable to derangement and disease, and which require much more skillful and careful treatment. No class of diseases tests a physician's skill or a medicine's efficacy more severely than female diseases. No medicine has ever proved itself more successful in the cure of such diseases than Pe-ru-na. In that most trying of periods, which every middle-aged woman must pass through, Peru-na has proved a true boon to the sex. "I had been a great sufferer for three years," writes Mrs. S. Smith, of Hillsville, Pa. "I had given up all hope, when I commenced taking Pe-re-na and Man-a-lin. Now I am as well as ever in my life." Regulate the bowels with Man-a-lin.
